

Event: Choral Recitation

Date: 30/04/2018

Today we had a wonderful event which showcased our students' talents when reciting poetry. The children worked together to recite, with actions, an array of wonderful poems.

Grade 1 A performed a sweet poem entitled “I Can Be a Pal” which showed the importance of friendship. The children did an excellent job reciting and performing together in unison.

Grade 1 B performed a cute poem entitled “Tiny Diny” which told the story of a small dinosaur. The children did an excellent job reciting and performing together in unison.

Grade 1 C performed a lovely poem entitled “Smile” which certainly made everyone smile. The children did an excellent job reciting and performing together in unison.

Grade 1 D performed a great poem entitled “Manners” which helped to remind everyone of their manners. The children did an excellent job reciting and performing together in unison.

Grade 1 E performed a delicious sounding poem entitled “Poppadums” which made everyone hungry for more. The children did an excellent job reciting and performing together in unison.

Grade 1 F performed a delicious sounding poem entitled “I Have a Little Frog” which describes a cute little frog. The children did an excellent job reciting and performing together in unison.

Grade 1 I performed a delightful poem entitled “Two Little Magic Words” which showed the importance of saying “please” and “thank you”. The children did an excellent job reciting and performing together in unison.

Grade 1 G performed a delightful poem entitled ,
“Animal Homes ” which showed the habitat of animals .
There was a lot of perfection in what was recited

Grade 1 J performed a delightful poem entitled , “Five little pumpkins ” which showed conversation between pumpkins. The children recited very well and there was a lot of support from team members who were nervous about reading aloud.

Grade 1 L performed a short poem on Ice Creams. The head gears they wore was very apt for the recitation. It was truly rewarding to see how positively each student embraced the total experience. The students were having a great time.
